

Bryan Anderson McCleary

It is with great sadness that the family of Bryan Anderson McCleary of Windermere, Florida announce his sudden passing. Bryan was a light to those who knew him, always ready with a smile. He loved to cook and he loved to laugh. A beloved son, brother, grandson and nephew, he left this world far too soon. He is loved and is greatly missed.

Bryan was predeceased by his grandparents Gordon and Pauline McCleary. He is survived by his parents Russell McCleary and Kelly McCleary; his siblings, Megan McCleary and Emrys McCleary; his grandparents Robert and Kathy Welch, and numerous uncles, aunts, cousins and friends. “ I dwelled on saying something for so long. I still do not have words to express my feelings, I can only share that I have all the feelings as I write this. Bryan was an absolute joy in my life and especially our time working together at Disneyworld. He welcomed me as a friend, supported me, and most of all laughed so hard. When I found out about Bryan's passing in March 2023, I immediately called anyone who could tell me I was wrong and I was dreaming. I wasn't. As I thought and emotions whirled, I just want to stop and say thank you for everything. Bryan was an angel. Bryan had an infectious smile. Bryan had an encompassing laughter that you couldn't help but laugh with him. Thank you friend for all the memories, thank you for our time together. I will remember you forever.

Until we meet again

“ I only just learned of Bryan's passing today. Bryan was the highlight of my work day when we worked together in Deployment from 2012-2013. We routinely sat next to each other, giggling and making jokes all day or all night depending on our shift. We took our lunches together and hung out outside of work. I remember taking him to Whole Foods Market or chilling at Ikea. Or the time I got him hooked on that TV show Scandal. I gave him my copy of Love Actually because he loved that movie so much. We were so close. We kinda lost touch when I moved abroad but we'd check in every now and then.

I was so excited to hear about his cooking passion and love for Dollywood and travel. I really have missed him because he could really light up a room. May he rest in paradise. He was like a little brother to me and I will always always always treasure the inside jokes, laughter, and the absolute wonderful person he was forever. It was a pleasure getting into "trouble" at work with him.
