

Deborah Hamm Caulk

October 8, 1938 - October 20, 2021

Deborah Hamm Caulk was born October 8th, 1938 in Washita County, OK to parents Edward Hamm and Jenni V. Crowley Hamm. She passed away peacefully on October 20th, 2021 at the age of 83. Deborah lived in Orlando, FL where she owned and operated All-Ways Hair Studio. She was a very faithful member of the church of Christ at South Bumby for nearly 30 years. She was a diligent Bible student and was always looking for an opportunity to share her love for the Gospel and Jesus Christ with others. She was known for hosting Bible studies in her hair salon.

She was preceded in death by her parents and her sister, Betty J(Sam) Deutschendorf. She is survived by her nephew Steven Deutschendorf, his wife Teresa, their son Lee, his wife Britney, and their two daughters Carson and Logan.

Deborah grew up in Washita County and Cordell, OK. During her early adult life, she lived in Japan and Germany. In the late 1950s, she moved to Orlando Florida and lived most of her life in Central and North Florida. Deborah worked up until her death as a hair stylist. She loved fashion and was always seen wearing colorful outfits, jewelry, hats, feathers, and bows. Her fashion can be summed up with the quote from Coco Chanel, "In order to be irreplaceable, one must always be different". She loved reading and was a lifelong learner. Her positive outlook on life was illustrated in her favorite saying "It is what it

A memorial service will be held Saturday, October 30th at 10am, at the church of Christ at South Bumby, 3940 S. Bumby Ave. Orlando, FL 32806. Deborah will be laid to rest with her parents and sister at Glen Haven Memorial Park, 2300 Temple Dr. Winter Park, FL 32789 on a date to be determined.

2 Timothy 4:7-8 “I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Finally there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give to me on that Day, and not to me only but also to all who have loved His appearing.”
