

Donaline C White

August 14, 1934 - February 5, 2022

Donaline C. White, a retired Teacher and Organist from Longwood, FL, passed away at the age of 87 on February 5, 2022 in Maitland, FL. She was born in Nashville, TN on August 14, 1934.

Donaline graduated from West End High School in Nashville, TN in 1952. She went on to attend University of Florida in Gainesville from 1952 – 1955, she would later graduate from Florida State University in 1967 receiving a Bachelor Degree in Social Work.

She was married to the late Joseph Benton White, Jr. on June 2, 1955.

Donaline was a teacher and Church Organist for over 20 years in Seminole and Orange counties, mainly at Lake Brantley High School and Community United Methodist Church in Casselberry.

She was a member of Delta Delta Delta Sorority at UF and continued to be active in the alumni association in Central Florida. She was very involved in her church in leadership and choir, the social community of Seminole County for many years including organizations such as Welcome Wagon, Seminole Singers, and various Bridge and Social groups. She had a deep passion for her family, church and music community throughout her life.

She was an only child and was predeceased by her parents Dr. Thomas and Donna Hurn Carter and 1990 by her husband of 35 years, Dr. Joseph Benton White, Jr. and is survived by her daughter, Vicki Lynn (Matt) Robbins, son, Thomas Joseph (Amy) White. Eight Grandchildren; Becky (Ryan) Morris, Cindy (Jason) Zapp, Scott (Whitney) Waechter, Courtney and Tyler Robbins,

Rachel, Grant and Noah White; She also leaves behind, 14 Great Grandchildren, and sister-in-law, Genie White of Gainesville, FL. Funeral arrangements will be held at 4:00pm, Saturday March 19, 2022 at Community United Methodist Church, 4921 S Highway 17-92, Casselberry, FL 32707.

Previous Events

Memorial Service

MAR 19. 4:00 PM (ET)

Community United Methodist Church
4921 S Highway 17-92
Casselberry, FL 32707