

Leonardo Zapico Martinez

September 24, 1938 - October 23, 2021

LEONARDO ZAPICO (1938 – 2021)

Leonardo Zapico, resident of Orlando, FL passed away at the age of 83 at the Commons, on Saturday, October 23rd, 2021 in Orlando, FL.

Leonardo was born in La Habana, Cuba, on September 24th, 1938. He was raised Catholic and attended St. George school in Cuba and graduated from Georgia Tech in Atlanta. He came to the United States in 1959. He was an engineer and worked for Disney and Lockheed Martin.

Leonardo is preceded in death by his parents Leonardo Zapico Sr. and Dolores Martinez.

Leonardo is survived by his wife of 56 years Silvia Zapico, his children Sylvia Schaffer and Leonardo A. Zapico, and four grandchildren who will miss them dearly.

He was a family man, devoted husband, and loving father. His beautiful family was his pride, love, and joy. He was involved in church and marriage encounters. A gentle soul, kind heart, and good man. Always doing good to others. He enjoyed swimming, boating, traveling and pets. He had a special love for all animals.

Leonardo was a beacon of light to his family; he loved his family unconditionally. He lived his life remarkably and his life is an example of sincerity and dedication to God, family, and friends. He will be remembered forever, and he will live through happy memories from all family and friends. We are blessed and thankful to have had him in our lives. May God shine His Eternal light upon him.

Viewing will be held at 9AM on Wednesday, November 3rd, 2021.

at St. James Catholic Cathedral.

Funeral Mass will be at 10AM with internment following at Chapel Hill Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to St. James Catholic Cathedral.
