

Lydia Esther Rivera

February 11, 1942 - May 30, 2023

Lydia Esther Rivera, a gracious wife, mother, and sister born in Arecibo, Puerto Rico passed away peacefully at home in Orlando, Florida on May 30th, 2023 at the age of 81.

She is survived by her loving family, her Husband of 62 years Felicito; daughters Lucy, Hilda and Janet, and her son Felix.

Lydia was an extraordinary, mindful, and compassionate individual who always put others' needs before her own. She was endearing, caring and protective, loved deeply and completely, and never left an empty stomach in her path. She had a love for all things in nature, and above all else, she was a fierce and intuitive caregiver who never met a soul she couldn't touch.

Although she will be sorely missed, her family cedes her to the hands of our loving father so that she may share that same beauty and grace with us all from heaven. May she rest for eternity in the kingdom of our Lord.
