

Margaret Amodeo

February 19, 1941 - August 26, 2021

Margaret Amodeo (1941-2021), also known as Magee, Gee & Coach A. Margaret's love of life did not come to an end with death. She passed away on August 26 at the age of 80 after a magical & miracle battle with multiple strokes, surrounded by loved ones who will continue her legacy by living life to the fullest and giving back to the community.

Margaret, aka Coach A: Manager of Champions, coached, managed, and mentored Big League Softball teams to National and World Series Championships. Among many notable recognitions was being awarded the Citizen of the Year for Orange County, honored with a Belle Isle Proclamation for leadership, above and beyond acts of kindness and dedication to the community.

Margaret was predeceased by her husband Frank and son Louie. She is survived by her children, Frank, Debbie & Dean. She was a proud grandmother and faithful sister to her 10 siblings.

The simplest of pleasures brought great joy to Margaret. She cherished every moment teaching, coaching, & mentoring the youth our community and her loving heart left a ray of light for all in the community.
