“ I first met Marie when Kathy (KK) and I started dating during our junior year of high school. She was like a second mother rather than a mother-in-law to me, and seldom lacked an opinion to offer up whatever the occasion might be. One noticeable exception was the day KK and I were married. As the reception was winding down at the Felter home, KK and I slipped away to change clothes for our honeymoon trip. Marie happened upon us in the bedroom in the process of getting dressed, and quickly pointed out to me that I should NOT be in the same room with her daughter while she was disrobed. I pointed out to her that it was probably OK since we were now officially “man and wife”. Speechless, she quickly turned around and departed. Over the 45 years since then, we would all get a good laugh at her expense whenever the subject came up! You will be missed but never forgotten by this son(-in-law), Marie!

“ I memory of Aunt Marie, when Grandma forgot to release the pressure cooker valve. There was chicken and dumplings everywhere. The next memory was when the ropes holding the swing broke I hit the ground so hard that it took the air out. Aunt Marie, and 3 of my other Aunts were looking at me. Aunt Marie said that she is okay, and she will start breathing soon.

I remember her when Grandma forgot to take the pressure off of the pressure cooker, and there was a hole in the ceiling, and chicken and dumplings all over the kitchen. Also when Grandma, and I went out to clean the garden for next year. I said Grandma the garden was too muddy. She told me that I didn't know anything, because I was not even on A yet. I remember how beautiful Aunt Marie is, she could have been a model, or a movie star. Sandra J. Wulfers-Schoen.
