

Ornes Alfredo Nivar

November 17, 2021

Educated in the trade of welding, Ornes dedicated 30 years of his life as a union welder. A true master of his craft. In his spare time, he enjoyed gardening, and spending time with his family.

His personality was contagious, bringing joy to everyone he came in contact with. Coming from humble beginnings and having migrated to the USA from the Dominican Republic at the young age of 17, Ornes appreciated everything that God had blessed him with; most of all, his family.

Family was the center of his life and it brought him great honor to see his family thrive in a country that so long ago was but a dream of his and his siblings. He helped pave the way for so many and for that, he felt very blessed. He also enjoyed speaking about Jehovah God in a very loving way.

He is survived by his wife of 43 years Ylka Nivar, his daughter Ornelia A. Nivar, his sons Marcell A. Nivar, Argelis R. Nivar, Ornes I. Nivar, and Rene A. Nivar. He was also the proud grandfather of Precious McGarry, Alexander R. Nivar, Aiden J. Nivar, Andre D. Nivar, and Olivia I. Nivar.

“ At a very young age, my dad would have me help him with home repairs. There was no limit to what we could build when we worked together. He passed along to me a skill set that has proven invaluable now that I have kids and a home of my own. It was always refreshing to be able to help him with any home maintenance project. It's when we bonded the most. He always had a joke to throw in here and there and it was guaranteed to make me laugh. To him laughter and smiling was medicinal. I remember how happy he was all of the time. It was an honor and a pleasure to watch him enjoy spending time with his grandchildren. The most important lesson I have learned from my dad is that we should enjoy the company of those we love as much and as often as possible because tomorrow is never promised. He taught me to never quit and to always try my best at everything I do. He also taught me that if I commit to something or someone, then I must keep my word because a person is only as good as their word. His “Can Do”, “Never Quit” attitude has made me the person that I am today. I am eternally grateful and thank the Lord for giving me a father like Ornes A. Nivar. Papi, te extrañaremos. Que en paz descanse. Bendición Papi.

“ Una vez tuve que llevar a mami y papi de Orlando a Miami y luego a Orlando otra vez. Cuando estábamos de regreso, mami me dice "mi hijo, para estos viajes largo tu eres un caballo." No pasaron ni dos segundos cuando papi me dice, " Tu vez? Ya te dijo animal." X-D
Te extraño papi.

“ Se fue un ser humano grandioso, gentil y generoso. Lo recordaré con mucho cariño y agradecimiento, nos acogió a mi familia y a mi dándonos una voz de aliento y siempre con una sonrisa, una palabra positiva y su paz se quedará entre nosotros. Hoy puedo decir que se fue un amigo; inició el viaje primero pero algún día nos volveremos a encontrar.
Pido a Dios fortaleza para toda su familia, Don Ornes lo extrañaremos.

“ Papi Ornes was the most kind and gentle soul I have ever met. If there was a man I would have loved to have as a father would have been him. Papi was always so patient and loving. His smile and ways of being always made my family and I welcomed and loved. When my family and I moved back to FL and we had no where to go Papi and Mami opened up there doors with no hesitation and made us feel welcomed and when we moved into our home, he helped my husband move the few things we had. Always and forever we hold you very close to our hearts.
