“ As a Snowbird, I got to know Russ at least fifteen winters ago at the coffee gatherings following 8:00 a.m. mass at Blessed Trinity. Russ was always very outgoing, jovial, and full of interesting stories. I miss you, Good Buddy.

“ Russ had a heart of gold and he and Laura were great people always helping others. Russ was involved in numerous ministries. We had my mother's 90th birthday celebration at their house with a Marachi band. Russ had volunteered to have it at his house as we needed to accommodate about 40 people and places to secure for that type of event are hard to find. It was a great success thanks to Russ and Laura. May they rest in peace together again
