

Samson Gebrehiwet Habtemariam

June 28, 1965 - August 31, 2021

Samson Gebrehiwet was born on June 28, 1965 in Asmara, Eritrea to Wro.Minia Nugusse and Ato. Gebrehiwet Habtemariam. He went to Medeber Elemenary and Adulis Middle school in Asmara. He was the admitted to Asmara Technical School and graduated as an outstanding electrician in 1984. He worked for EELPA from 1985-1994 and supported his family at a young age. He was a dedicated servant of Jehovah; even though he had some challenges in his life, he loved Jehovah and did his be to serve Him. Besides being an electrician Samson was a naturally gifted technician; it was like there was no electronic equipment he wasn't able to fix. He migrated to Addis Ababa, Ethiopia in November 1995 and worked at SCANIA and kept supporting his sisters Aster and Timnit while staying active in his spiritual life activities. He migrated to Canada in 2005; lived there for about nine years and moved to Orlando, Florida in March 2005; where he resided until the day he left us.

Samson was preceded in death by his late parents Ato Gebrehiwet Habtemariam and Wro. Minia Nugusee, his late brothers Merhawi Gebrehiwet and Teclai Gebrehiwet. His survived by his sisters Aster and Timnit, brothers Solomon and Aron and three nephews and six nieces.